

Benediction

Go now in the peace of Christ our King—

The One who is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn over all creation, the One through whom and for whom all things were made, and in whom all things hold together, including your very life.

As we go, remember:

Christ is before all things.

Christ holds all things.

Christ reconciles all things.

Christ is Our King

So may the blessing of the Father, the reign of the Son, and the life-giving power of the Holy Spirit, be upon us and remain with us, as we live in His Kingdom—today, tomorrow, and forever.

We go in peace to love and serve the Lord,
In the name of Christ. Amen.

Christ The King Sunday

Colossians 1:11-20 NIV

Thanksgiving and Prayer

¹¹ being strengthened with all power according to his glorious might so that you may have great endurance and patience, ¹² and giving joyful thanks to the Father, who has qualified you to share in the inheritance of his holy people in the kingdom of light. ¹³ For he has rescued us from the dominion of darkness and brought us into the kingdom of the Son he loves, ¹⁴ in whom we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins.

The Supremacy of the Son of God

¹⁵ The Son is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn over all creation. ¹⁶ For in him all things were created: things in heaven and on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones or powers or rulers or authorities; all things have been created through him and for him. ¹⁷ He is before all things, and in him all things hold together. ¹⁸ And he is the head of the body, the church; he is the beginning and the firstborn from among the dead, so that in everything he might have the supremacy. ¹⁹ For God was pleased to have all his fullness dwell in him, ²⁰ and through him to reconcile to himself all things, whether things on earth or things in heaven, by making peace through his blood, shed on the cross.
