

Friday, May 15

Psalm 93

2 Kings 2:1-12

Ephesians 2:1-7

Theme: "The King of kings" grants authority to go forward as He would.

The Lord chose David; the Lord also chose Elijah and Elisha. Never forget that this same Lord chooses each of His disciples today to overcome sin and evil, push back the darkness with His Light, and most urgently—to proclaim the Good News that this desperate world needs to receive.

PRAYER

Lord God, you reign in majesty, clothed with strength, and your throne is established forever. Thank you for raising us from death to life in Christ and seating us with him in heavenly places by your grace. As you called David, Elijah, and Elisha, remind us that you have also called us to share in your work. By your Spirit, give us courage to go forward in the authority of Jesus. Help us overcome sin, resist evil, and push back the darkness with your light. Make us faithful witnesses of the Good News. In Jesus' name, Amen.
